3. Report of Orientation Programme to First year students

An orientation programme was jointly conducted by the Department of Botany and Zoology on 17th December 2020 for our first year B.Sc. Students regarding the theme 'Inducting in Style' sponsored by Parent Teachers Association of our college. The resource person was Sri. Praveen Varghese Thomas, an alumnus of our college who is currently working as an Academic Trainer and Social Worker. The programme started at 10 am in online mode via Google Meet. The programme started with the address of Smt. Arabhi P, HOD, Dept. of Botany, who introduced the resource person and welcomed the gathering.

The talk by the resource person was very much informative. The class was very interesting, considering the way of presentation and his friendly attitude towards the students. While talking about the different aspects that influence the life style of younger generation, the resource person made the topic interactive with a very simple topic of 'selfie' with which he was able to convey three important life lessons of elevate, evaluate and empathy in our everyday life. All of us must think elevated while dealing with the situations that we face and we must be well educated as an educated man will be able to deal such matters. Similarly, evaluation of opportunities that we get and evaluation of ourselves too will help us to make decision as we go on targeting a goal that is to be achieved in future. Empathy is a feeling that all of us should possess because only those with empathy will be able to understand others feelings. Moreover, the speech dealt with an orientation towards various other career options like doing other diploma and certificate courses that may add to our qualification. The class also helped us to impart the importance of love, respect, happiness, strength for ourselves to be able to provide it for others. The orientation programme equipped the students aware of opportunities which were available in the field of their interest and to make the students understand that in order to succeed in life the students need to work hard. All students actively participated all along the programme. The session ended by 12.30 pm with the proposal of vote of thanks by Dr. Krishnaraj M V (Class teacher, D1 Botany).

Association Report _ Botany 2020-21

1. Report of Collage competition

Botany association organised an interdepartmental College competition to get an awareness on Pulses, the highly proteinaceous dietary component in human consumption. The programme was organised online with the help of volunteers in between 10 am to 1 pm on 10th February 2021., on world pulses day. Students were monitored online in google platform and allowed to submit their collage preparation only by using various pulses. Later winners were judged with the help of evaluators online and provided e-certificates and cash prize.

The poster is for a 'Pulses Collage Making Competition' organized by the Botany Association of Baselian Orchhids. It features a background image of a river and trees. The text is arranged in a structured layout with various fonts and colors (white, yellow, and green) to highlight different sections. A logo of the Department of Botany is in the top left corner. The competition details, including the prize list, are clearly outlined. Contact information for the organizers is provided at the bottom.
