2.8.4 Tidings and Tinsel

The X'mas programme of the Department-Tidings and Tinsel conducted on 23rd December 2022, was a joyous occasion for both students and teachers. D3 student, Varsha Rajesh, as Santa Claus entertained one and all. Christmas songs by teachers and students, games and the carol with candlelight for world peace were the highlights of the programme.

2.8.5 DigitALL

Keeping attuned with the theme for International Women's Day- “DigitALL: Innovation and technology for gender equality”, the Department organised a program on 8th March 2023 to observe Woman’s Day. Dr. Jyothimol P delivered the Keynote Address. She talked about how being technologically equipped is a key to closing gender gaps. She also talked about the invasion of AI in education and about the pros and cons of Chat GPT. We then had three students of the Department—Ms. Sheethal Elsa Mathew MII (SEESAA), Ms. Evelyn Susan Cherian MI (NIRACHILLUKAL), and Ms. Ardhra Baiju (RHYTHM School of Dance)—who have started off as woman entrepreneurs. They spoke about their online stores and how it has given them confidence and financial independence. 74 students participated.

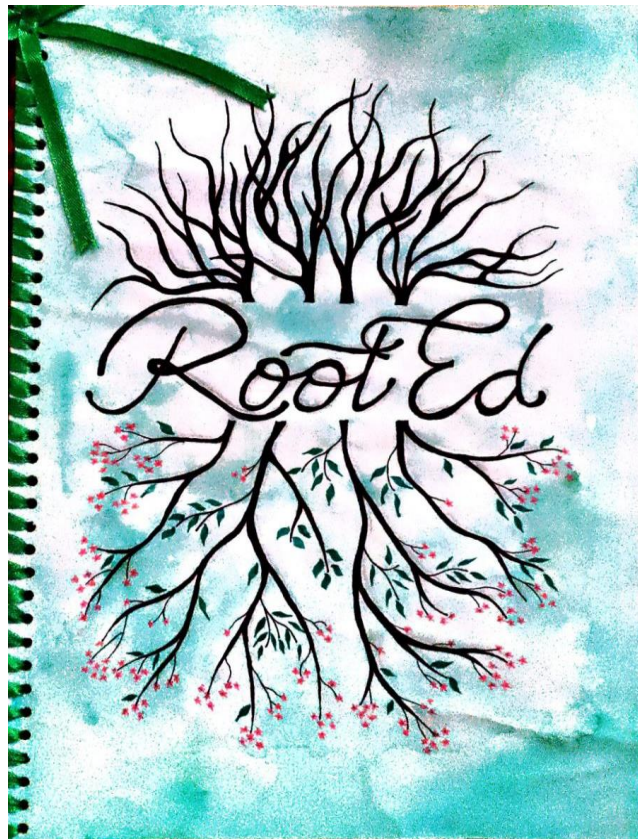

2.8.6 RootEd- Handwritten Creative Magazine themed “For a sustainable tomorrow”

A sustainable future with green values has become a prospect that many people of this generation wish to see unveiled in the upcoming years. We are in a race against time to prevent major catastrophes and the young generation shall have taken upon themselves to set things right. The future is right here and if not now, then when. Keeping this in mind, ELITA invited students to submit articles (stories, poems, essays, travelogue, etc.) for the year’s handwritten magazine which is broadly based on the theme: For a sustainable tomorrow.

The students of the Department of English were asked to ponder on the topic and submit their musings in poetic, prosaic or artistic form. The contributions were to be broadly based on but not limited to the following areas:

- *Gender balance and sustainable development
- * Environmental sustainability and digitalization.
- * Going Green, Green transition
- * Green growth
- * Poetics of ecology
- *Sustainable innovation
- * Reinventing tourism
- *Resilience to natural disasters for sustainable development
- *Green energy for Sustainable development
- * Covid and its impact on sustainability
- * Memory and sustainability
- * Cultural sustainability or culture for Sustainability.
- * Sustainable travel

The outcome of this, is the handwritten magazine “RootEd”- which could mean educating ourselves about our roots, or delineating our rootedness, or reviving our roots.

2.8.7 Movers & Shakers- Ruminations on Theory by Postgraduate Students & Teachers

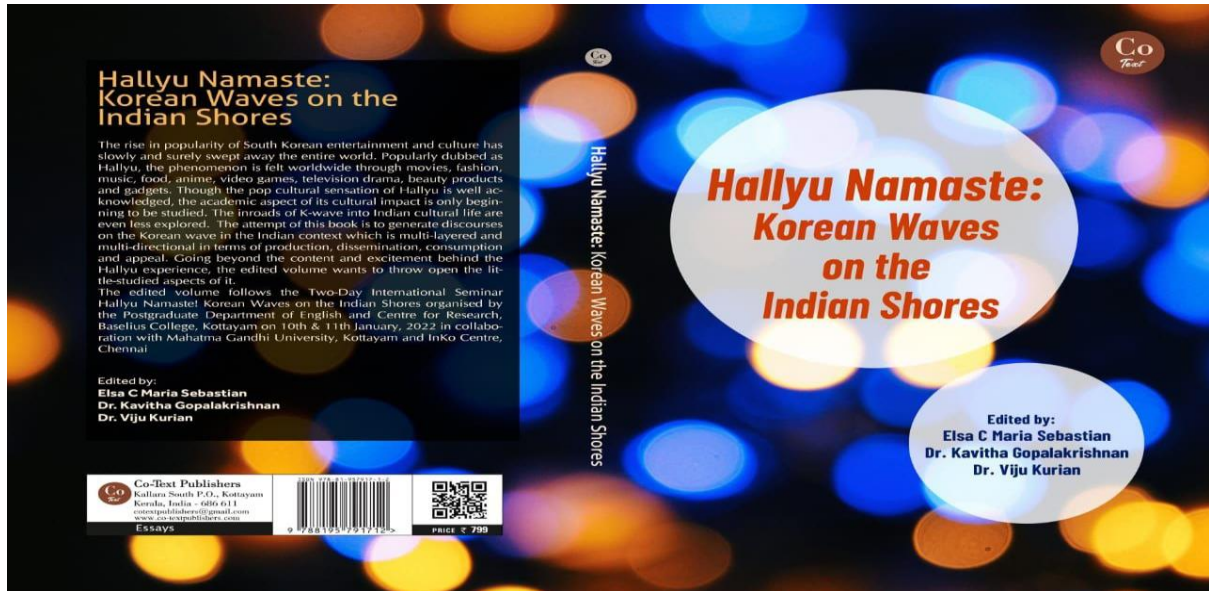

As part of the extended learning initiative, the postgraduate students were encouraged to read about the contributions of select critics. They were then asked to put down the key contributions of the critics assigned to them in a succinct manner. The teachers too chipped in to contribute to this discourse in literary studies. Movers & Shakers marks the culmination of the cumulative efforts taken at the Department to constantly update ourselves on the myriad of intellectual currents that shape contemporary literary discourse. The book has three sections. The first section has an A-Z list of critics, the second section is dedicated to Indian theoreticians and the third section discusses the various tangents of post-theory.

2.8.8. Book Release- Annual Department Publication- Hallyu Namaste

The Department releases an edited book annually. This year an edited book Hallyu Namaste: Korean Waves on Indian Shores, a compilation of the select papers of the International Seminar conducted last year, was released on 20th December 2022 by Ms. Sreeja Shyam, the resource person of Manju Mathews Memorial lecture. The book is edited by Ms. Elsa C. Maria Sebastian, Dr. Kavitha Gopalakrishnan, and Dr. Viju Kurian.
