Talk on Drug Abuse and Unseen Consequences

1. Brochure

1. A Brief write-up

International Day against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking is observed every year on June 26 with an aim to spread awareness about the global drug problems and eliminate drug misuse. And joining hands with the aim Political Science Associated with NCC Unit of Baselius Kottayam and Department of Economics to conduct a webinar through Google Meet, on the topic 'Drug Abuse: The Unseen Consequences' led by Shri. Rajesh Manimala, ASI, District Crime Records Bureau.

Google Meet Link:

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/13yDluIPbTGa3Ox9FBa0B0EVLt5taunGz/view>

The session was very informative and useful, covering topics ranging from how students are exposed to such drug abuse to how it affects the society as a whole. It made the students aware on the main reasons behind the elevation of drug use by students and teenagers, general reasons like because it provides a temporary confidence, courage and helps them fit in socially, and the solution to all these begins with awareness. The audience were very attentive and responded to the class in a positive manner. Rajesh sir kept the student audience energetic throughout the session with questions, great stories and with his humoristic way of presentation.

2. Participant List

The session had an active participation with a total of 76. The audience was mainly students including NCC cadets.

Special Lecture on “Indian Agrarian Sector: A Saga of Human Rights Denial”

1. Brochure

2. A Brief write-up

Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10th December, the day on which the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The Universal Declaration empowers us all. As part of empowering ourselves and others and to lead the attention of students towards the in-depth of the series of state lead human rights denial towards the agrarian society of our country, we organised a special lecture on the topic “Indian Agrarian Sector: A Saga of Human Rights Denial” on 10th December 2021 at 10 am at Vocational B.Com Seminar Hall.

The lecture was led by Prof. Chandran Komath, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Government College Nattakom. Prof. Shibu M George, HOD chaired the programme while Sri. Lijo Sebastian conveyed a warm welcome speech.

The lecture started with pointing out the importance of the need of human rights and the severity of its denial. He also addressed several relevant points on the human right denial issues faced by our agrarians from state and the seriousness of the ignorance towards such a crucial matter. The session covered many key aspects of human rights within about 40 minutes. The programme concluded with a round of discussion and vote of thanks by Dr. Sheeja Kuriakose, Department Association In-charge.

3. Participant Details
