

WOMEN'S FORUM

REPORT (2014-15)

As the famous quote goes, “Uncertainties and expectations are the joys of life”. In this era, where women need to get empowered, the Baselius college of Kottayam has organized a forum, The Women’s Forum, for the girl students and the teachers. The aim of the forum is to give views and give them expectations and courage so as to strive forward and become a wealthy gem in the society.

Prof.Shetal Elizabeth Thomas(Dept of Chemistry)and Mrs.Manju R(Dept of Voc B.Com) were leading the team in 2014. Ms.Sofia Sara Anil(Dept.of Zoology) and Ms.Anju (Dept.of Malayalam) were representing the students in the supporting role as Secretary and Joint Secretary.

During 2014-15 the forum conducted following programmes like :

1. On October 13,2014,forum celebrated “penkuttikalude dinam” .All girl students of first year degree classes attended the meeting
2. Womens Forum conducted a seminar on “beauty and personality” on November 14,2014,in association with JCI Angel City Kottayam.All girl students from M1 Chemistry, D3 Chemistry and Vocational BCom participated in the seminar.
3. Womens forum conducted driving classes for the girl students- two wheeler and four wheeler- in association with the Anugraha Driving School, Kottayam.

Empowerment of women is a continuous process where they, who were put down in the earlier years, are brought up as strong independent females with all rights and progress as men have. Women need to be equipped to the new developments in the world, to survive independently and to lead a good life.

Associations like women’s forum shall pave way for this continuous process.
