The club was officially inaugurated on the first day of August 2020, by esteemed guest Nandini Nair (IRS) on Google meet platform. Forty six students attended the online meet along with some professors and the school Vice Principal, Dr. Jyothimol. Nandini R Nair is a well-known figure in the field of Theatre and Art. She has been a part of many theatre workshops and have contributed to the arts field through her poignant paintings. Nandini ma'am shared her thoughts and convictions with the students about how they could still pursue arts and follow their passion, even if they end up having a different job in future. This session was indeed a great start for the Histrionics club activities.

2. Baselian Folklore- Talk on YouTube channel

The official launch of the Histrionics Club YouTube channel commenced on the 30th of August. It was collectively decided to create a space for the students to share their thoughts and opinions which led to the creation of Baselian Folklore series where club members could post videos about their takes on any aspects relating to arts, cinema or theater. Anju Mathews from second year MA English started off the series with her video which strongly spoke on the stereotypical recurrent characters in Malayalam cinema. The video garnered more than five hundred views on YouTube.

3. 'Lives; Not Stories'- Documentary Screening and Discussion.

On 24th October, a session was organized with Dr. Rajesh James, one of the leading of the leading figures in Documentary Film making and Film Research. A screening of In Thunder Lightning and Rain (Best Documentary Award, State Film Festival, 2020) directed by Dr. Rajesh was held followed by discussion on the same. The students shared their thoughts and opinions through the virtual meet. Forty two club members took apart in this session.

AN INTERACTION WITH KANI KUSRUTI
(KERALA STATE AWARD ' 20, BEST ACTOR WINNER)

17-3-2021
PLATFORM - G MEET
10:30 AM

The final program organized by Histrionics Club for this academic year was an interactive session with State Award winning actress, Kani Kusruthi. On the 17th of March students and teachers interacted with Kani through a Google meet with about 100 participants coming together for the first time. Students and teachers typed their questions in the chat box and Kani answered them. This session was a truly amazing experience for all of us.
