2019-20

Report 2019-20

The objective of education is not just to impart academic knowledge, but also to ensure the overall development of students. Education is complete and achieves its purpose only when the students become equipped to meet the challenges in every field of life, be it educational, social or cultural. The Arts Club at Baselius College helps its student community to develop a positive nature and a creatively inclined student with a positive bent of mind and aesthetic approaches in every work he or she does. It provides an unparalleled forum for the students to test their intellectual and artistic prowess. The opportunity that the Youth Festival offers them to exhibit their skills and talents in the field of culture, literary and other activities on a common platform certainly helps to facilitate their overall development.

Ensuing forth is the Annual Report, for 2019-20 of the Arts Club, which shall provide a clear and complete picture of the Club's accomplishments over this past year. The focus during the past year was twofold: a) maintaining the tradition of conducting distinguished contests for which the Arts Club is celebrated, b) Apart from participating in a multitude of events, the students get a first hand experience of organizing and managing the events, it caters to the creative needs of the students. Under the guidance of teachers -in-charge ( Prof. Jinu Mathew, Dr.Aneesha Mary and Prof. Neha P.R.) and committed and capable Union members, with special mention of the Arts club secretary Roshan Daniel Reji ( D3 English), the Arts Club has been able to conduct a handful of good programmes and also bag some notable achievements... The key events conducted under the auspices of Arts club were:

- Onam Celebrations
- Christmas Celebrations
- ‘Samyuga’: Arts Festival
- University Arts Festival- Article14 at Al Azhar College, Thodupuzha.

ONAM CELEBRATIONS

The college has conducted Onam celebration in a grand and traditional manner on 6th September, 2019. The high spirit of the students reflected in the way they arranged an intricately designed flower carpet and welcomed Maveli. This year a common Athapookkalam was designed in the auditorium and each segment of floral design was assigned to 12 departments of the college. A beautiful creation was achieved from the contributions of all the participants. By 9:30am Onam celebrations were in full swing. Young ladies looking stunning in their traditional saris and young men resplendent in their colourful choices of dhothis. Various cultural events as well as games were arranged for students. The students were treated with a Thiruvathirakali which had almost 30 participants in the college courtyard. After this, there was an “Onapattu” competition coordinated by Ms.Meera Elizabeth James of English department for which all the 12 departments gathered up to sing songs based on the festival. Department of Economics bagged first prize, Department of Commerce and Department of Chemistry were in the second and third positions respectively. This was followed by Sreeman Shalini competition coordinated by Dr.Manjusha Panicker of Malayalam department and Ms.Anju John of English department .The competition was conducted in two rounds. Sethulakshmi S of Commerce department was selected as Kerala Shalini 2019. Agatha Kurian of English department was the first runner up and Lakshmy K B of Physics department was the second runner up. Kerala sreeman 2019 was Joel Joseph of English department. Jinesh Joseph of Zoology department and Nikhil Sam Abraham of Physics department were the first and second runner up respectively.

Vadamvali or tug of war brought out a different level of excitement from the students. This was the competition that everyone wanted to win as it was a department wise show of strength and bragging rights. First prize was bagged by Physics department and the second prize by English department. Students participated enthusiastically in the 'Uriyadi' competition. One student from each department participated and competition was conducted in 2 sessions. Ananthu Venugopal of English department and Sreekumar K of Chemistry department won first prizes. To bring a wrap to the function, the prize distribution was held by 1.15pm by the college principal Dr. Biju Thomas. After that all associations conducted their Onam celebrations in the respective departments which came to an end by 3.30pm. Beyond the competition and festivities, the most significant achievement of these celebrations is that it brings in a spirit of camaraderie among the students and teachers. The showcase of talent and display of incredible teamwork is a true sign of success of such events.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

The Christmas celebrations took place in the college auditorium on 20th December 2019 at 1.30pm. Various competitions were organised, such as the carol competition, Santa competition. Christmas cake cutting was also done by the Principal and Vice principal and as a mark of joy cake was distributed for the whole college by the union members. All the 12 departments of the college participated in the competitions. The carol singing competition was judged by Prof. Meera Elizabeth James, Fr.Giby K Paul and Ms. Aelu Elza Kurian. The winner was Commerce department and Commerce(S.F) was in the second position. Santa competition was conducted simultaneously and the santa was judged based on his performance. Santa competition was judged by Dr.Anit M Thomas, Prof. Nibu B Thomas and Mr. Clement Mathew Kuriakose. Nidheesh Pradeep of D3 Mathematics was chosen as Santa 2019. The staff and students were completely spellbound with the Christmas gratification.

SAMYUGA: ARTS FESTIVAL 2019-20

The key event of the Arts club- Annual Arts Festival – which aims at providing students a platform for improving their capabilities to work as a team and raising their level of self-confidence in interacting with fellow students and peers, was inaugurated on 15th January at 10.00 am with a formal inauguration function. Over the following two days many young energetic talents took the stage and delivered a host of performances. In order to instil the true spirit of competition, the cultural committee of the college, comprised of the teachers-in charge of Arts Club, House Masters, the Arts Club Secretary and other student representatives, grouped the students of various batches into 4 different houses “Sarod”, “Thamburu”, Ektara”, “Shehanai”. The event is conducted strictly in accordance with the rules framed by the University, for the impartial conduct of the contests. All the competitions were conducted separately for boys and girls. The following are the details:
