MG university Kalolsavam- Article 14

A college-level screening competition was conducted and the selected students were teamed up into groups and were given expert training for participating in the group musical events (Indian group sing and Western group song) at the MG university Kalolsavam - Article 14 which was held at Thodupuzha. Prof Manoj Narayanan was the expert trainer for the Indian group song. Mr Reuben along with Miss Aelu Elsa Kurien was the expert trainers for the western group song. Both teams bagged second prize at the kalolsavam and made the college proud.

Programmes conducted during the Lockdown period.

The unexpected Covid-19 pandemic and the lockdown that befell with it was a blow to the whole world. The lockdown brought along with it a lot of stress. The music club amidst its limitations tried the very best to keep the students and the teachers of the college both motivated and relaxed by coordinating a range of programmes. A loop singing video on the song “ Lokam Muzhuvan Sugham pakaraanaayi” , was organised by the club, where all the teachers of the college along with the Principal and Vice- principle together joined hands in prayers for the well-being of the world. Our Indian Group song team put forward a wonderful ‘Ganamaalika’ to soothe the world with their harmonious voices. This performance was put collectively under the guidance of Prof

Manoj Narayanan (<https://youtu.be/pbEIBBdC2F0>). The western group song with their spectacular performance wanted to spread the message of breaking the chain of Corona virus (<https://www.facebook.com/337561636370819/videos/536438090636402/>)

Timely support and guidance provided by Dr Biju Thomas , the Principal ,Dr Jyothimol P the Vice Principal , Prof Manoj Narayan and Prof Jinu Mathew arts club teacher in charge is worth mentioning. The club is immensely in debt for the co-operations and assistance provided by Miss Aelu Elsa Kurian.
