Interpretation

The satisfaction on the planning and delivery of the curriculum is quite high as indicated by a score above 4. Value contents and employability skills contents have recorded average satisfaction only.

Based on the suggestions, the following points of action are considered

- On the Job training inclusion on a compulsory basis
- Research needs to be given more importance at P G level
- Inclusion of field trips every year and preparation of reports
- Electives shall be based on the demand and the developments
- Possibility of starting professional courses training
