Interpretation and Action

The feedback was obtained after discussing the areas included in the new syllabus of U G programmes, implemented wef Academic year 2017-18. Compared to the previous syllabus, the employers felt an improvement in aspects like employability, industry requirements etc. However, the score on the prospects of developing entrepreneurs is found to be low compared to other aspects. The employers feel that there are chances of including additional activities.

Based on recommendations, it was decided to explore organising more Industrial visits. There were also suggestions to arrange face to face interactions with entrepreneurs.
