Policy for Preparing Students for state/national/international examinations

The college arranges programmes and training sessions for students who appear for various competitive and career examinations as well as examinations for higher studies. There is a clear-cut policy in this regard:

- Students shall be provided information regarding the various state/national and international examinations which help them to pursue higher studies and shape their career
- The details of various examinations for employment in India and abroad must be provided to the students so that they can register and prepare for the same in a timely manner
- The various fora like P G forum, career Cell and departments shall arrange lectures/ awareness programmes/ special coaching etc. for students preparing for the examinations
- P G departments shall give special attention for examinations like UGC NET for which many of the P G students wish to appear
- Special appreciation shall be given to students who clear the National level examinations
