5.1.2 Policy Document of the College for Award of Scholarships and Freeships (2016 – 2021)

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR DISTRIBUTING INSTITUTIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS/ENDOWMENTS

The institution is proactive towards the disbursement of scholarships and efforts will be taken to ensure availability of all kinds of scholarships to students. The policy regarding the distribution of scholarships is based on parity and transparency. Both state funded and private funded schemes are made available to students. Registers of financial transactions are maintained. The process of application for scholarships is supervised by a staff Member, who is the Nodal officer of scholarships.

The scholarships/endowments instituted by various individuals, well-wishers, alumni and college management are generally distributed on Laurels day or Merit Day and Prathibha Sangamam, a day of appreciating exemplary achievers in academic and co-curricular activities. Students eligible for the scholarships/endowments are selected based on a criteria laid down during the establishment of the respective scholarships. The policies related to scholarships/endowments are listed below.
