11. "How to become a successful Chartered Accountant ?" on 20/01/2023

The Commerce Association hosted a career awareness programme for third-year B.Com students on January 20, 2023, starting at 11 p.m. in Room 305. Mr. Balamurali Krishan from Momentum Group Institutions oversaw the session. He provided a quick overview of chartered accountancy in this session and the employment prospects that will be available to the students after completing the CA courses. He provided more information regarding the steps and requirements for finishing the examinations. The students participated in the interactive session and submitted comments on the offered feedback forms. There were 54 students present for the session. By 12 o'clock, the session had come to a close.

12. Career Awareness Class on opportunities abroad on 20/02/2023

A career awareness session about opportunities overseas for final-year students was hosted by the Commerce and BBA Associations on February 20, 2023, at 3 p.m. Aravind K R of D3 BBA gave a welcome address to kick off the session. Aleena Shebin from Geebee Education study abroad managed the session. With the help of a PowerPoint presentation, she provided a quick explanation of the numerous opportunities available to graduates and postgraduates overseas, as well as the various tests that must be passed in order to qualify for international scholarships. The interactive session was used by the students to clear up any questions they had. 88 students including B.Com, M.Com, and BBA final year students took part in the session. Bijin Abraham Thomas of D3 B.Com delivered vote of gratitude to conclude the meeting.

13. Career Awareness Class on Germany – Free education and study in English

A career awareness session was organised by the Commerce and BBA associations on 21 February, 2023 at 3 pm. It commenced with a welcome note delivered by Aswamy Shaji of D3 B.Com. The session began with an introduction to international careers, highlighting the increasing globalisation and inter connectedness of the job market by Delna Sebastian from Life Planner Studies & Opportunities. The students were informed about the diverse range of industries and professions available abroad. Students had the opportunity to share their thoughts, ask questions and seek guidance from the session facilitators. This segment emphasised the benefits of pursuing a career abroad. The students were made aware of the advantages such as exposure to different cultures, personal and professional growth, access to advanced technology and research, higher earning potential and the opportunity to build a global network. The session was ended by a vote of thanks by Anuja Anoop of D3 B.Com. 56 students participated in the session.

The career awareness session on opportunities abroad was organised by the Commerce and BBA associations on 02 March 2023 for the final year B.Com , M.Com and BBA students to provide a comprehensive understanding of the potential career prospects available internationally. It was started by a welcome note by Aravind K. R. of D3 BBA. The session aimed to raise awareness about the benefits, challenges and resources associated with pursuing a career abroad and it was handled by Arya Mukesh from Insight International. Attendees were informed about the various resources available to assist them in exploring and pursuing international careers. This included scholarship programs, career counselling services, online job portals, networking platforms and government-sponsored initiatives. The career awareness session on opportunities abroad was highly informative and well-received by the attendees. Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the benefits, challenges and resources associated with pursuing international careers. The interaction session helped the students to put forward their doubts regarding this area. 67 students participated in the session. It was ended by a vote of thanks by Prescilla Mariam Abraham of D3 B.Com.

16 Career Portraying for Future

The Commerce & BBA Associations and Career Guidance and Placement organized a very informative session for students on March 23, 2023, at the Mrs. Mammen Mappilai hall. The session was conducted by career guidance trainer Mr. Shammem Periyanghat in association with 24 news channels and it was anchored by Diya D2 BBA. Ajay Pradeep of D2 B.Com delivered the welcome speech and about 68 students participated in the program. Mr. Shammem Periyanghat shared his life experiences and the motto of his life and how he became a successful man. The session was focused on self-fostering and becoming a leading individual. Mr. Periyanghat has a big team of career guidance experts who are committed to help students to achieve their career goals. The students were very attentive throughout the session and several questionnaires were addressed. There was also a discussion about the CAT exam, which was attended by only one section due to time constraints. The questions and reviews were posted later for all students to review. Anujith Madhu of D2 BBA delivered vote of thanks and several students shared their interesting feedback about the session. Overall, the program was a success and the students gained valuable insights about career guidance and self-development.
