AN IQAC INITIATIVE

Baselius College, Kottayam has been blessed with a galaxy of glittering teachers right from the day of its inception in 1964. Many of these great gurus have left us forever, but the fragrance of their memories lives on in the minds of their innumerable students and several others who came in contact with them. Prof. P. Rajaram Menon was the doyen among these renowned academicians.

Born into the illustrious Poothambali family in Emakulam on 26th August 1917 as the son of Sri. Kerala Varma Thirumulpadu and Smt. Kunjukavu, Prof. Menon had his professional debut in NSS College, Changanacherry. From there, he shifted to Catholicate College, Pathanamthitta in 1956. Eight years later, he moved over to Baselius College, then a fledgling institution, as the first Head of the Department of English. His invaluable contributions to the Department in the initial years of its development will remain etched in gold forever in the annals of the college. A great lover of learning, language and literature, he impressed his colleagues and students by his vast knowledge, impressive lectures and simple, austere lifestyle.

Prof. P. Rajaram Menon passed away on the 1st of July 2007. The Dept. of English has been organizing a memorial lecture every year, to honour this great teacher. Dr. Sukumar Azhickode (2008), Dr. K.S. Radhakrishnan (2009), Dr. Jancy James (2010), Dr. Babu Paul (2011), Sri. TP. Seccivasan (2012), Dr. Siby James (2015), Dr. C. Gopinathan Pillai (2014) Prof. George Onakkoor (2015), and Sri. B. Unnikrishnan (2016), Sri. Unni R. (2017), Benyamin (2018), Ambikasthan Mangad (2019) and Sri. Santhosh George Kulangara (2020) have all delivered their excellent discourses. This year, Smt. Sajitha Madathil, renowned playwright, film and theatre artist will deliver a lecture on gender, women and performance.

is a multi-talented woman, a writer, academician, theatre artist, actor/director, television personality, actor/producer, film actor and cultural administrator. She has acted in more than 30 well known Malayalam films with renowned directors such as Adoor Gopalakrishnan and Shaji N. Karun. She has worked as a professor previously as the Head of the Acting Department at K. N. Narayan Film Institute. She has also worked as the Deputy Secretary, Sanghet Natak Akademi (National Academy of Music, Dance and Drama, New Delhi, an autonomous body under the Ministry of Culture, Government of India) and as the Deputy Director, Kerala Chalachitra Academy (Academy of Motion Pictures, Kerala State) along with being the Documentation Officer/Documentary Producer, Other Media Communications, New Delhi and as a Producer at Kerala TV, India. She has also been a lecturer cum theatre expert at National Institute of Integrated Learning and Management, New Delhi. She developed an archival portal for Kerala folk art forms called Aalakkalam and has presented papers in seminars on Kerala culture at different academic seminars all over India and abroad.

She has also been active in the Malayalam (Oriental) theatre and feminist discourses for more than a decade and is one of the founders of Abhinethi (Actress), the first women's theatre group in Kerala, formed to explore the potential and possibilities of women's expressions. She has been involved in more than 40 productions as an actress, and also directed two solo performances and scripted 4 plays - Matyaganidhi, Charu, Chankaran Family Reality Show and Mother's Day and Kati Nadakam (Kati Nadakam is part of curriculum at different universities in Kerala).

Sajiya Madathil has worked as a producer in Kerala TV from 2000 to 2002. During this tenure, she had conceived, co-ordinated and directed 75 episodes of a weekly magazine titled Perumalayalam (on women's issues and performance tradition). She has received three state awards for Documentary Making. She has directed a documentary on P.H. Meda—Masturbate patukuni in 2011 for PRD, Government of Kerala. She has scripted, directed and produced the documentary film Nan Nodu II (An Actress) on three theatre actresses of Kerala in 1994 for Doorashan, the state-owned television channel.

She has received prestigious awards like Kerala Sahitya Akademi Award for Playwriting in 2021, Kerala Sanghatha Nataka Akademi Award for the contribution in Theatre in 2020, Kerala State Film Award for Second Best Actress for acting in Movie "Shutter" in 2015, Kerala State Sanghet Natak Akademi Award for Best Theatre Book 2010, Kerala State Television Award for Best Current Affairs programme in 2002, Best Children's Documentary award by the Kerala State Council for Child Welfare in 2000, Kerala Film Critics Award for Best Documentaries in 2001, Assistant Award for Best Supporting Actress in 2015, Kerala-Vayala Puvakkaram for the contribution to Malayalam Theatre in 2015.

PROF. MANJU MATHEWS

Prof. Manju Mathews was an asset of the Dept. of English, Baselius College with her prodigious intelligence, and skills in multifarious fields ranging from education to art. A proficient teacher, a melodious singer, a promising researcher and a skilled painter, she has left imprints of her remarkable self in the minds of her kith and kin along with her colleagues and students. Every year this lecture provides an opportunity for her dear and near ones to refresh memories on her multifaceted personality.

She was born on the 11th of December 1970 in Panachikattu House, Vilakkumadom near Pala as the youngest daughter of (Late) Shri. P. J. Mathews and (Late) Smt. Brigit Mathews. She did her schooling at Vilakkumadom itself and completed her graduation from K.E. College, Mannanam. She attained the PG and M. Phil degrees from the Institute of English, Thiruvananthapuram and started her career as a Lecturer in English at Baselius College in 1995. She was a research scholar at the Institute of English, ardent in her studies, until her sad demise on the 29th of August 2006.

The Department of English has been organizing a memorial lecture every year, to honour this great teacher. Prof. Manju Mathews Memorial Lecture started in 2007. The inaugural edition of the memorial lecture was delivered by Dr. Jancy James, the then Hon. Vice Chancellor of M.G University, Kottayam. Veterans from various walks of life like Sri. N.S. Madhavan, Sri. Madhupal, Sri. Benjamin, Dr. J. Devika, Sri. Subash Chandran, Sri. B. Unnikrishnan, Dr. Siby James, Dr. Sandhya Pal, etc. have delivered their keynote addresses. Last year Sri. Ajay P. Mangattu shared his thoughts on "The Landscapes of Imagination: The Places, Things and Beings in the Writing". This year, Smt Sreeja Shyam will talk on "The New World of Transitioned Media".

SREEJA SHYAM

Sreeja Shyam, the acclaimed journalist is the coordinating editor at the The Fourth. She is the recipient of Kerala State Award for the best News anchor in 2018. Having worked as the Chief-Sub Editor at Mathrubhumi News Channel and Senior Broadcast Journalist at Asianet News, Ms. Sreeja possesses a plethora of experience and has marked herself as a responsible journalist who deliberates on the most relevant and contemporary issues.

"Our appreciation of folk art will strengthen our identities, our pride in belonging to a community"
- F. Sionil Jose

Folklore, folk music and folk art are quintessential elements of ethos and myths of any culture. Folk culture is often associated with history, tradition, ethnicity, and locale of a community. Folk customs and culture play a pivotal role in shaping the structure of social life. Folk tales, folk dance and similar artistic representations help to reflect upon our identity and roots within the society.

The program intends to explore the world of folklore by opening up discussions on folklores and folk traditions that are embedded in art, music, literature and much more both within our country and across the globe. The Postgraduate Department of English and Centre for Research, Baselius College Kottayam, organizes the 8th edition of PG Student's Seminar and Paper Presentation Competition, PRAJNA 2023 on Folktales : Reflections and Representations.

Prof. M.J. Thomas Memorial Inter-Collegiate Quiz Competition

The association has been conducting Prof. M J Thomas Memorial Inter-Collegiate Competition for many years mostly on his birthday in memory and honour of Prof. M.J Thomas who was the former HOD of the Department and former principal of the college. The competition is mainly aimed at undergraduate students. The prize money of the competition is sponsored by the family of Prof. M.J. Thomas. Many students from different colleges have been participating in the competition for years.

Unlike the yesteryears, the inter-collegiate quiz competition of this year was a tremendous comeback from online to offline mode. The enthusiasm and the competitive spirits were reflected on each candidate and the organizers. The quiz competition started at 10:00 am on 12th August. Mr. Liju Alex, the assistant professor in Mathematics of BCM College, Kottayam was the quizmaster. The competition had 5 rounds and as a tie breaker, the quiz ended up with 6 rounds. The explanation and description of each question enhanced the curiosity of candidates as well as the audience. The competition ended at 1:00 pm.

Outcomes:

1. It helped students to look beyond their textual knowledge and establish a relationship between theory and application of the learnt concepts.
2. It enabled students to think from different angles or simply 'to think out of the box'.
3. It aided team building process.
4. The explanation and description of each question by the quiz master enhanced the curiosity and interest of candidates as well as the audience on the subject.

18 teams registered for the competition and each team comprises two members. The participation details and the details of the winners are given below:
