7.1.9: Sensitization of Students and Employees of the Institution to the Constitutional Obligations: Values, Rights, Duties, and Responsibilities of a Citizen

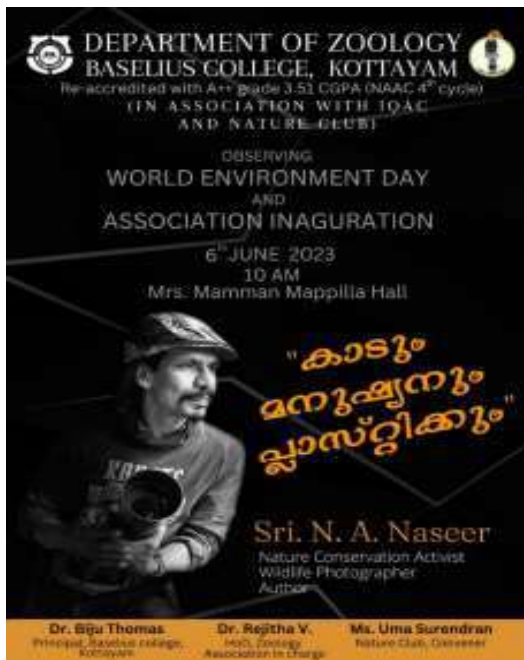

During the 2023-24 academic year, the following are the programmes conducted to foster the ethos mentioned under the Constitution.

❖ Programmes aims to make aware about Environmental and Wildlife Protection

On 6 June, 2023, the Department of Zoology organised a talk on the topic ‘Kadum Manushyanum Plasticum’ (Forest, Man and Plastic) by Shri. N.A. Naseer, the well-known Wildlife Photographer, Nature Conservation Activist and writer, was the chief resource person for the session. The talk was very interesting and impressive as he explained about his passionate journey as a photographer and nature conservationist. He presented many photographs he has taken and described the experiences behind those. The participants could explore the world of wild through his photos and talk. The students actively participated by asking questions. 77 students participated in the session.

Observation of World Wetland Day

The Department of Zoology observed World Wetland Day on 2nd February, 2024. A talk on ‘Wetland Conservation’ was organised for the students of the Department. Dr Prabhakaran M.P., Assistant Professor (Fisheries Oceanography), Department of Aquatic Environment Management, Faculty of Fisheries, Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies (KUFOS), Panangad, Kochi was the chief Resource Person. He conveyed the importance and role of wetland in our environment in conserving biodiversity and preserving ground water. He has also given a brief description on the scope of Fisheries Oceanography and the courses the students can opt for higher studies. The session was very interesting and the participants actively involved in the discussion. 66 students participated in the programme.

Preserving the Roar: Combating Poaching for a Thriving Tiger Population

The Department of Zoology conducted an online Poster Designing Competition for Higher Secondary School students as a part of International Tiger Day. The competition was conducted on 06/08/2023. The theme was ‘Preserving the Roar: Combating Poaching for a Thriving Tiger Population’. The participants were directed to submit their entry in the link provided. 36 students participated in the competition. Very creative designs were submitted by the participants among which the first and second positions were bagged by Asrithamol P.M., JJMMHSS, Yendayar, Idukki and Sethuparvathy K.J., Baker Memorial GHSS, Kottayam respectively.

Beat Plastic Pollution Sub Theme: Waste to Biomass

As part of the World Environment Day celebrations, the Department of Botany, Baselius College organised a workshop under the title Waste to Biomass on 05th June, 2023 at the Botany laboratory. The programme started after a welcome speech by Dr. Krishnaraj M.V., Association teacher in-charge 2023-24, stressing the need of waste management at source itself. He also introduced the resource person, Dr. Nibu A. George, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, Baselius College, Kottayam. Dr. Nibu brought all the materials to make a biodegradable bin. With the help of students, the resource person assembled a low-cost bin. The biodegradable waste materials are processed with the help of Black Soldier fly Larvae. Following lectures, active discussion and discourse by students and faculty members happened, which made the session lively. Mr. Niranjan Biju, Association Secretary, proposed a vote of thanks. Output: Students, along with the resource person, have made a low-cost bin for the processing of biodegradable waste by using soldier fly larvae. They also received practical instruction in the construction of a biodegradable waste management.

Intercollegiate Photography Contest on Plastic Pollution World Environment Day Celebrations–2023: Solutions for a greener future

‘Click for a Cause’: Solutions for a Greener Future, Intercollegiate Photography Contest on Plastic Pollution and Proposing Creative Solutions conducted by department of Chemistry, in connection with World Environment Day Celebrations–2023 aims to raise awareness about plastic pollution and encourage college students to document instances of plastic pollution they witness in their surroundings while proposing creative solutions to address the issue. Participants are asked to capture compelling photographs showcasing instances of plastic pollution they encounter in their local environment. These photos can include littered areas, polluted water bodies, plastic waste in natural habitats, or any other impactful visuals related to plastic pollution. Along with photograph, participants must provide a written proposal outlining their innovative solution to address the specific plastic pollution issue depicted in the photo. The solution should be practical, sustainable, and have the potential for real-world implementation. Six contestants participated in the competition. A panel of judges evaluated the entries. Bhoomika C.S., IInd B.Sc. Chemistry student of Mar Athanasius College, Kothamangalam won the prize.

Association In-charge

The Physics Association activities started its long triumphant journey on June 5th 2023 with the “Environmental Day celebration”. As a part of environmental day celebration, an awareness programme about energy auditing of the individual houses were conducted for Physics students. Nearly 40 students participated in the programme. Dr. Nibu A George, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics was the resource person. The class was very effective and all the students actively participated in the programme. He demonstrates the need for house energy auditing and how to reduce the current bill effectively.

Then, students conducted a simple Walk-Through audit (observation of the energy consumption of electrical appliances) in their own houses. All the students calculated the average power consumed in their houses for one month, analysed their energy usage, and discussed what could be done to reduce energy consumption.

Krishnendu and Jaison, alumni of the department made a presentation for the students about the importance of the day.

Planted Sapling of Tree-NCC

The NCC Baselius unit in association with Rotary Club Kottayam planted saplings of trees along the Kodimatha highway on 15th August was a significant initiative. The programme also created awareness among cadets and the broader society about the critical importance of tree plantation. This endeavour underscores the collective responsibility we have in nurturing and preserving the environment, as trees are indeed the lifeblood of our planet, providing vital oxygen, and habitat for diverse species, and playing a crucial role in mitigating climate change.

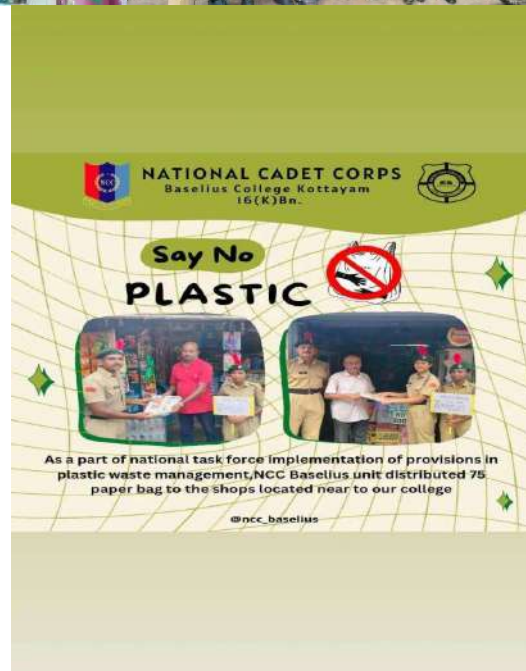

The Department of Malayalam in association with the Kottayam Film Society and Histrionics Club jointly organized a film festival focused on Environmental issues as part of the Environmental Day Celebration. Renowned Cinematographer Vinod Illampally inaugurated the event. National Film Award winner and cinematographer Nikhil S. Praveen delivered the keynote address. Dr Thomas Kuruvila, Head of the Department presided over the meeting. Dr Nibulal Vettoor, Dr. Sarath P. Nath, Dr. Selvi Xavier, and Malayalam Samajam office bearers Joel Jacob Kuriakos and Sandra Rose Thomas offered felicitations. 'Pebbles', which won the best film award, and 'The Elephant Whispers', which won the best film Oscar were screened after the inauguration.

SAY NO TO PLASTIC

The NCC Baselius unit distributed paper bags to the nearby stores and shops encouraging them to use paper bags thus bringing awareness about the issue. Plastic is becoming a major hazard to the environment. Although the government has banned plastic bags, they still can't be removed from our lives so easily. It takes a lot of years for plastic to degrade. Plastic is the most common non-biodegradable waste. Paper is biodegradable so it can be used as a substitute to a limited extent when it comes to carry bags. Paper bags can be substituted instead of plastic bags. Less plastic means less plastic generated or produced. A considerable reduction can be achieved following this. The paper bag waste although produced can be controlled and recycled. Most shops have switched to paper bags. Acknowledging this aspect, NCC took a very good measure in bringing about awareness in society.

Cleaning the Waterbodies

Contaminated water and poor sanitation are linked to transmission of diseases such as cholera, diarrhoea, dysentery, hepatitis A, typhoid and polio. Absent, inadequate, or inappropriately managed water and sanitation services expose individuals to preventable health risks.

Baselius College NSS Unit No. 5 volunteers cleaned the water body surroundings at Vadavathoor on 22nd August and made it a new appearance. N.S.S programme officer Ashly Thomas and Dr Manjusha V. Panikar led the cleaning mission. The programme was conducted by the volunteer secretary Ansu Jayan and Lakshmi Thinkal along with Bhoomithrasena coordinator Nanditha Pradeep and Nayana S Bharathan.

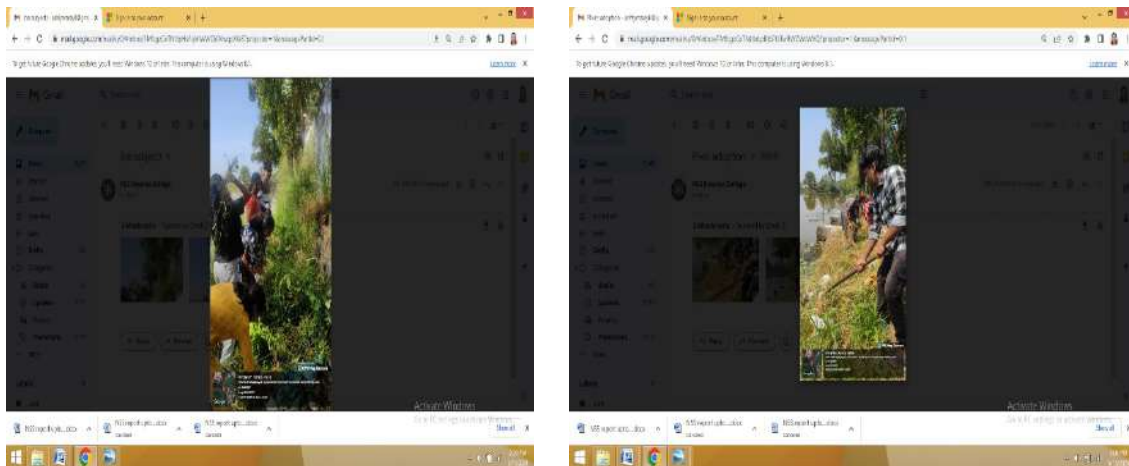

River Adoption and Sustainable Tourism campaign

Sustainable tourism aims to create a positive relationship between communities and the people who visit them. This can lead to tons of great benefits. For locals and tourists alike, interaction through tourism fosters learning. Both get to learn about each other's cultures, practices, and norms. Based on Sustainable tourism Baselius College National Service Scheme Unit No:5 volunteers visited the Kodoor riverside at Erayilkadavu on 22nd August. The project is to make the place tourist-friendly. N.S.S volunteers took the initiative to clean the riverside. N.S.S programme officers Ashly Thomas and Dr Manjusha V. Panikar visited the plot. The programme was conducted by the volunteer secretaries Syam Shankar R. and Renjith M. J along with Bhoomithrasena club coordinator Nanditha Pradeep and Nayana. S. Bharathan NSS volunteers of Baselius College cleaned the premises of Kodoor river on 13th and 29th of January 2024 as part of the river adoption project. The project aims to foster the positive impact on sustainable tourism and minimize the negative impacts like environment harmfulness. The programme was led by Lakshmi Thingal and Syam Sankar R.

Environment Day Celebrations

Baselius College National Service Scheme Unit No 5 organised several programmes in connection with observing World Environment Day. The main programmes on the campus are the following:

1. Plastic Waste Collection -NSS and Bhoomitrasena club in association with NCC collected plastic wastes in the premises of the college. Principal Dr Biju Thomas inaugurated the activity.
2. Pledge –pledge focusing the importance of conserving our environment read by Prof. Jyothimol, Vice Principal to NCC cadets and NSS volunteers of the college.
3. Declaration of Zero Waste Campus- Principal Dr. Biju Thomas declared the college campus as a waste campus.
4. Planting of fruit-bearing tree saplings- 15 tree saplings were planted by NSS volunteers which are of different varieties. The activity was organized as a part of the MG

University project of planting one lakh fruit-bearing tree saplings by the NSS the volunteers of the university.

In the meeting N.S.S programme officer Ashly Thomas delivered the welcome speech. The principal of Baselius College Prof. Dr Biju Thomas inaugurated the programme and declared the campus a Zero Waste Campus. Vice Principal Prof. Dr Jyothimol P, N.S.S programme officer Dr Manjusha V Panikar, N.C.C officer Lt. Dr Shibu M George conveyed greetings to the programme. The programme was organized by volunteer secretaries Syam Shankar R and Ansu Jayan along with the Bhoomithrasena coordinators Nayana S Bharathan and Nanditha Pradeep.

World Environment Day Celebrations at Adopted School by NSS

Baselius College National Service Scheme celebrated World Environment Day along with the students of the adopted UP school, Manarcadu. Two programmes were conducted at the school.

Awareness session -An awareness session for students of the school on the importance of conserving our environment was organized. Volunteers Ansu Jayan and Pooja Krishna led the session. The N.S.S programme officer Dr Manjusha V Panikar delivered the welcome speech. Baselius college vice principal Prof. Dr Jyothimol P inaugurated the function. The programme was associated with the Y's men's club. The representative of the club Mr Jacob George, PTA president of the Manarcadu UP School Mr. Shyju gave greetings to the programme. The programme was organized by the volunteer secretaries Ansu Jayan and Syam Shankar R along with the Bhoomithrasena coordinators Nanditha Pradeep and Nayana S Bharathan.

On the special occasion of World Environment Day, Baselius College NSS Unit no.5 conducted the inauguration of organic farming. The farming was inaugurated by honourable MLA Thiruvanchoor Radhakrishnan at 2.00 pm by planting tapioca stem cuttings. Dr E.N. Sivadasan, Co-ordinator NSS, MG University demonstrated how to plant tapioca and shared his agricultural experience with volunteers. Later NSS volunteers planted rest of the cuttings. Vijayapuram Panchayath President Sri V T Somankutty, ward member Sri Babu Joseph, MG University NSS programme coordinator Dr E N Sivadasan, vice principal Prof Dr Jyothimol P, agricultural officer Anumol T, NSS Programme officers Ashly Thomas and Dr Manjusha V Paniker conveyed their greetings on the occasion. The programme was conducted by volunteer secretaries Lakshmi Thinkal and Renjith M J along with Bhoomithrasena wing coordinators Nayana S Bharathan and Nanditha Pradeep.

Organic Farming

Organic farming can be defined as an agricultural process that uses biological fertilisers and pest control acquired from animal or plant waste. Organic farming was actually initiated as an answer to the environmental sufferings caused by the use of chemical pesticides and synthetic fertilisers. Basilius College National Service Scheme unit no 5 continued the work of organic farming at Vadavathoor, Kottayam. The site was visited by programme officer Prof. Ashly Thomas. The programme was conducted by Bhoomithrasana wing coordinators Nanditha Pradeep and Nayana. S. Bharathan. The activity was organised by Volunteer secretary Renjith M J and Lakshmi Thinkal

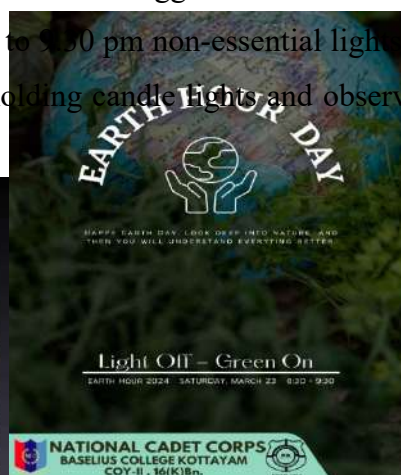

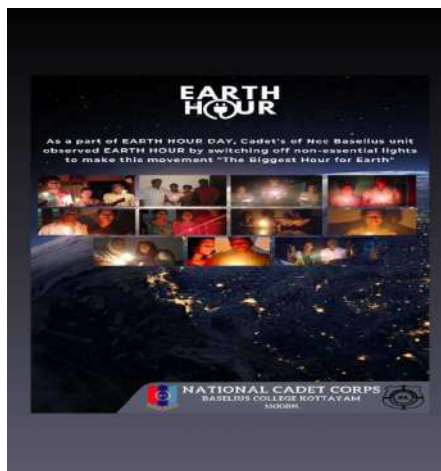

The NCC Baselius unit celebrated the environment day by planting trees in and around the college premises. To spread awareness for maintaining a healthy environment and protecting nature, seminars and lectures were organized. Different poster displays on protecting the environment were exhibited to widen the knowledge about the harmful effects of plastics.

The theme for World Environment Day 2023 was " Beat Plastic Pollution ". As part of Environment Day, a quiz competition was conducted for the NCC cadets by the NCC Baselius unit. The cadets were divided into four groups consisting of five cadets each. The quiz was based on the topic of conservation of nature and the environment. After an enthusiastic competition, the winners were awarded prizes by ANO Lt. Dr Shibu. M. George

Earth Day

As a part of Earth Hour Day, Cadets of Baselius NCC Unit observed Earth Hour by switching off non-essential lights to make this movement “The Biggest Hour for Earth. Earth Hour was observed on 23 March 2024. From 8.30 pm to 9.30 pm non-essential lights were switched off. It was a "Biggest hour for Earth". Cadets holding candle lights and observing the earth hour turned out to be an inspiration for many.

World Ozone Day Observance

On September 14, 2023, Curie's Conclave was organised to commemorate World Ozone Day. The event was designed to raise awareness about the importance of the ozone layer and the urgent need to protect it. The programme began with a soulful prayer led by Famy Francis and Meeralekshmi R of D2 Chemistry. Meeralekshmi R delivered the welcome speech. Suha Khadeeja S and Tressa Susan Varghese conducted a comprehensive presentation on World Ozone Day. They provided valuable insights into the history, significance, and current challenges related to the ozone layer. Their presentation emphasized the role of individuals and communities in ozone protection.

Albin S gave a thought-provoking presentation on astrochemistry and its relationship to ozone protection. He discussed the cosmic origins of ozone and how understanding astrochemistry can shed light on the preservation of this vital layer. Poojakrishna A and Nimisha Saji led a discussion on the Aditya L1 satellite and its contributions to ozone monitoring. They highlighted the technological advancements and scientific breakthroughs made in monitoring and protecting the ozone layer. Sinto Philip Sebastian concluded the event with a heartfelt vote of thanks.

Curie's Conclave-World Environment Day Observance

First episode of Curie's Conclave was conducted in connection with World Environment Day on 02-06-2023 at Mrs. Mammen Mappilai Hall. The gathering commenced with a prayer song by Hena Mariam Thomas and Reenu Roy of M2 Chemistry. Hena Mariam Thomas welcomed the gathering. Nandini Menon of M2 Chemistry delivered a session on 'Bioplastics; A sustainable Solution for Greener Future'. The session successfully helped students learn about the concept of bioplastics, their production processes, and their significance in achieving a sustainable future. It created awareness about the environmental impact of traditional plastics, explore the benefits and applications of bioplastics, and inspired individuals to adopt eco-friendly alternatives.

Adithi S. of M2 Chemistry delivered a session on 'Click Chemistry and Bioorthogonal Chemistry'. The session commenced with an informative overview of Click Chemistry, a powerful and versatile tool for synthesizing compounds quickly and efficiently. The audience gained insights into the fundamental concepts, reaction mechanisms, and practical applications of Click Chemistry in diverse fields, such as drug discovery, material science, and bioconjugation. The focus then shifted to Bioorthogonal Chemistry, an emerging discipline that enables selective and specific chemical reactions within complex biological systems. Adithi elaborated on the unique attributes of bio-orthogonal reactions, their compatibility with living organisms, and their applications in imaging, diagnostics, and targeted drug delivery. Nandana Raj of M2 Chemistry proposed a vote of thanks. The meeting came to an end by 3.45 pm.

Curie's Conclave-Hiroshima Day Observance- Department of Chemistry

The third episode of Curie's Conclave was conducted in connection with Hiroshima and Nagasaki Day on 10-08-2023 at Mrs. Mammen Mappilai Hall. The gathering commenced with a prayer song by Nandana Sunil & Geethu Krishna of D Chemistry. Akshaya Susan Philip welcomed the gathering. Sreelekha. P. S & Siddarth Harikumar of D3 Chemistry presented a video on 'Unveiling the Impact of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki Atomic Bombings'. The video presentation titled "Unveiling the Impact of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki Atomic Bombings" delved into the historical significance and far-reaching consequences of the atomic bombings that occurred during World War II. The presentation aimed to shed light on the Profound effects of these events on various aspects of global history, geopolitics, and human understanding. The video presentation successfully illuminated the multifaceted consequences of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombings, fostering a deeper understanding of the human, ethical, political, and scientific dimensions of these events. A pledge in honour of the victims of the Hiroshima bombing and to promote a world of peace and nuclear disarmament was taken by the gathering. S. Hrishikesh of D3 Chemistry delivered a session on 'Chandrayan 3'. The session successfully provided attendees with a comprehensive understanding of India's advancements in lunar exploration and its aspirations in the field of space research. The session succeeded in fostering a sense of excitement and curiosity about Chandrayaan-3 and its contributions to humanity's understanding of the moon.

Anisha Jojo & Gouri Nandana Baiju of D3 Chemistry delivered a session on 'Artificial sun'. The presentation effectively provided attendees with an insightful understanding of the scientific advancements and challenges in nuclear fusion research. Abhijith K Saju of D3 Chemistry proposed a vote of thanks. The meeting came to an end by 4.00 PM.

Curie's Conclave: World Science Day for Peace, Development

On November 10, 2023, Curie's Conclave was organized to celebrate World Science Day for Peace and Development. The event was designed to bring attention to the transformative power of science in building a more peaceful and sustainable world. The programme began with a soulful prayer led by Irene Elza Suresh and Bhama S. of D1 Chemistry. Anagha delivered the welcome speech. Amrutha Rajagopal and Bhama conducted a comprehensive presentation on the significance of science in addressing pressing global challenges and promoting peace. Amrutha Suresh and Anna conducted a presentation on the life and achievements John Newlands. Ramsheena concluded the event with a heartfelt vote of thanks.

Hiroshima and Nagasaki Day Observance- Oath Taking and Crafting Sadako Sasaki's Paper Cranes. The Physics Association organized an observance of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Day on 10/08/2023. The event aimed to commemorate the tragic events of World War II and promote a message of peace and remembrance. The programme commenced with an oath-taking ceremony, where all the students and teachers pledged to uphold the values of peace and to work towards preventing similar tragedies in the future. Following the oath-taking, participants engaged in the crafting of paper cranes, inspired by the story of Sadako Sasaki. Sadako, a survivor of the Hiroshima bombing, famously folded paper cranes as a symbol of hope and peace. The act of crafting these cranes was a touching gesture, symbolizing the desire for healing and reconciliation in the wake of conflict. These activities provided a platform for dialogue and remembrance, fostering a deeper understanding of the impact of war and the importance of promoting peace.

Campus Cleaning

The initiative taken by the NCC Baselius unit to clean the surroundings of the campus on October 7 reflects a commendable commitment to promoting cleanliness and hygiene. Recognizing that these factors are essential for maintaining a healthy life, the unit's action not only contributes to the immediate improvement o f the environment but also fosters a culture of responsibility and awareness among its members and the wider community. By prioritizing cleanliness, we demonstrate a proactive approach to safeguarding health and well-being, emphasizing the interconnectedness between environmental cleanliness and personal health. Such initiatives are crucial steps towards creating a cleaner, safer, and healthier environment for everyone.

Cleaning War Memorial-NCC

Socio-economic Survey in association with Unnath Bharath Abhiyan (UBA)

The Department of Zoology conducted a socio-economic survey in association with Unnath Bharath Abhiyan (UBA) at Monippally Panchayath on 6th January 2024. UBA is a flagship programme of the Ministry of Human Resources envisaging rural development. The survey was held to develop a Unique Grama Panchayath Development Plan (GPDP) for the area by incorporating stakeholders from various fields of the society including people's representatives, students and policymakers. 31 students from the Department actively participated in the survey under the leadership of Ms. Sany Mary Benjamin (UBA Convenor) and Dr Anit M. Thomas. The student coordinators were Megha S. Kollettu and Faisal Ali of D3 Zoology. This survey helped the students to know about the socio-economic status of the community in the selected locality and also it provided an opportunity to interact with people belonging to various socio-economic levels. The survey was very successful.

Paper Bag Making:

The Department observed World Paper Bag Day on 12th July 2023. This year, the theme of World Paper Bag Day 2023 is "If You're 'Fantastic', Do Something 'Dramatic' To Cut The 'Plastic', Use 'Paper Bags'." The students of the Department were taught to make paper bags and the bags made were distributed to the Co-operative Society of the College.

The significance of World Paper Bag Day is two-fold. Firstly, it serves as a reminder for people to opt for paper bags over plastic when shopping. Plastic bags are not biodegradable and they can take hundreds of years to decompose in a landfill, leading to serious environmental damage. Paper bags, on the other hand, are much better for the environment as they are biodegradable and can decompose in a few months.

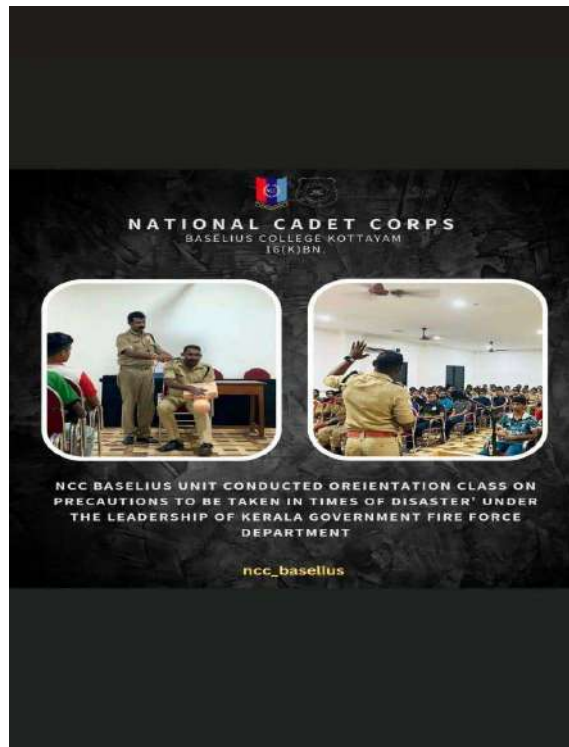

Secondly, World Paper Bag Day is a great opportunity to raise awareness about the need for sustainable packaging solutions. As plastic waste continues to accumulate in our landfills and oceans, we must look for alternatives that can help us reduce our environmental impact. This is why World Paper Bag Day is so important - it serves as a reminder for us to explore sustainable packaging solutions that can help us cut down on waste and reduce our environmental footprint. 15 students from first-year B.Sc. Zoology participated in the programme.

The BBA Association organised a classroom activity of making Paper bags with old newspapers as part of World Paper Bag Day. This activity aimed to promote the use of eco-friendly paper bags instead of plastic carry bags and to reuse old newspapers to make carry bags for daily use. Students of D2 and D3 BBA were engaged in the activity. Rooms 307 and 317 were used to conduct the activity.
